5 Ways FINBOA Payment Disputes transforms the payment dispute process

Digitizes Dispute Intake

Using FINBOA, FIs can digitize the intake process anywhere banks or credit unions exchange information with account holders.

Streamlines Reporting and Data Access

Centralized data and document management enables timely decision-making with enterprise-wide access to information and reporting.

Automates Compliance Processes

By applying intelligent automation to inefficient, highly repetitive manual tasks/processes, FINBOA clients keep up with compliance requirements, minimizing risk.

Facilitates Loss Reduction

FINBOA Payment Disputes enables FIs to reduce claim-related write-offs/losses.

Automates Decisioning and Provisional Crediting for Low-Value Disputes

Automates decisioning of under business minimum (UBM) disputes as determined by preset institution-specific criteria without human intervention and ensures timely provisional credit issuance for low-value disputes before Reg E deadlines.

Observe what others are saying about the FINBOA Payment Disputes solution in use at their financial institutions.

The FINBOA Payment Disputes and AutoDecision process is seamless. Our staff loves that they don't really have to touch it. For transactions under $25, disputes auto-complete without any manual intervention. Our staff simply prints the notification letter and moves on to other tasks."

- First Oklahoma Bank, Senior Vice President

With a 500% ROI, cost savings were key to choosing FINBOA Payment Disputes automation. Automation not only reduces operational costs, but helps prevent fines, and streamlines processes for maximum efficiency."

- Carter Bank & Trust, COO

We've reduced processing time by 50% or more over the manual systems that were in place. And a big plus for me personally, is FINBOA's Payment Disputes solution helps us keep track and stay compliant with Reg E timelines, even when I am not in the office."

- First Bank of Carmi, Operations Team Lead and Security Officer

If we get audited, we can actually pull from the FINBOA data and show that 99% of our claims were completed within the Reg E time frame. This allows us to pinpoint the one that wasn't and why."

- Sandia Area FCU, Card Services Manager
